

Kensaku Yoshida

Distinguished Professor Sophia University, Director of the Center for Language Education and Research

Professor Kensaku Yoshida is a Distinguished Professor of Sophia University and the Director of the Center for Language Education and Research. He studied at Sophia University and the University of Michigan.

He served as Chair of the Expert Committee on Reform and Enhancement of English Education, Ministry of Education, Culture, Sports, Science and Technology (MEXT) and the Committee to Discuss Ways to Improve the Foreign Language Ability of the Japanese, MEXT.

Currently, he is a member of the Central Council for Education, President of the Airline Pilots' English Proficiency Assessment Committee, Ministry of Land and Transportation, President of J-Shine, an executive director of The International Research Foundation for English Language Education and a member of the Journal Advisory Board of Asia TEFL.