

Satoshi Yamada

Supervisor, Gifu Prefectural Board of Education

Mr. Yamada is originally from Gifu Prefecture. His career started as a teacher at a school in Takasu-mura, Gifu Prefecture in April 1991, then he joined Ogaki-city Board of Education (April 2005-December 2009), Seino Education Office (January-March 2010) and the Office for Promoting Foreign Language Education, International Education Division, Elementary and Secondary Education Bureau, Ministry of Education, Culture, Sports, Science and Technology (MEXT) (April 2010-March 2012). Since April 2010, he has been working for the School Support Section, Gifu Prefectural Board of Education. When working for MEXT, he was involved in implementing measures related to the national foreign language education. His current work is to supervise and implement measures to enhance and improve English education at elementary and junior high schools in Gifu Prefecture as a Supervisor in charge of foreign languages.